

Media Contact:
Jessica Fletcher
Communications Manager
Kentucky Chamber
jfletcher@kychamber.com
502-848-8731

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 12, 2010

Kentucky Chamber partners with Lexmark International for membership affinity program

Frankfort, Ky. –The Kentucky Chamber of Commerce has announced a partnership with the Lexington, Ky.-based printer company Lexmark International that will save Kentucky Chamber members and their employees money on their purchases of printers and supplies.

Discounts Include:

- 25 percent on printers
- 10 percent on ink and toner

Products include single- and multi-function black and white and color printers, which meets the needs of small and medium-sized companies, as well as home-based offices. Products are in line with the Kentucky Chamber's demographics makeup – 61 percent of the Chamber's membership has less than 50 employees and an additional 13 percent have 51-100 employees.

Discounts apply to products available on Lexmark.com. Purchase limits will apply when ordering. However, members can receive discounts on products in excess of the limits by contacting a Lexmark representative and identifying themselves as a Kentucky Chamber member. These large orders will be handled through one of Lexmark's partners to ensure appropriate customer care.

For more information about becoming a Kentucky Chamber member and taking advantage of this program, visit www.kychamber.com.