11th Annual Kentucky ENERGY MANAGEMENT Conference

Presented by

Why Attend

The Kentucky Energy Management Conference will give you timely information and practical advice to help navigate the challenging energy terrain. Experts from industry and government will share valuable insights on the forces affecting energy supplies and prices today, including the effects of increasingly stringent government regulations, ever more scarce natural resources and evolving global economic trends. By attending, you will receive a wealth of information to help you achieve your short-term goals of budgeting for energy costs today, as well as insights into the future cost and availability of energy sources such as coal, natural gas, wind, solar and nuclear. You simply can't meet today's energy challenge if you don't understand the problem – we're here to help.

Who Should Attend

- Facility and energy managers
- Plant operations managers
- Maintenance supervisors
- Managers/purchasers of energy
- Energy aggregators
- Energy engineers
- Plant engineers
- Governmental affairs managers
- Managers from utility companies
- Municipal and rural cooperatives
- Corporate affairs staff energy consultants

Once again, Chatterjee Wows!

My first time attending this conference.
Very good presentations for a first timer.

Very informative.

Neil Chatterjee is an excellent speaker.

Excellent Q&A session.

Very knowledgeable.

Interesting topic I knew nothing about.

Provided an excellent update on the alphabet soup of environment regs.

Once again, Kate Shanks provided a good, honest update.

Always a good update from Chatterjee.

Great dialogue. Subject matter was excellent.

Kate did a great job.

Great detail.
